

KLIMPL—Emanuel. Beloved and loving husband for fifty-three years of Evelyn. Devoted father of Judy Blitz, Michael and Ken. Dear father-in-law of Susan and Ruth. Proud grandfather of Brian, Jason, Tim, Rebecca, David and Richard. Services Sunday, 11 AM, Riverside-Nassau North Chapels, 55 North Station Plaza, Great Neck, Long Island (opp. LIRR).

KLIMPL—Emanuel. The officers and directors of The Arlen Corporation express their profound sense of loss upon the passing of their esteemed former officer and director, Emanuel Klimpl. In nearly three decades of distinguished service to the company, Manny was a constant source of wise legal counsel and business advice, applying his keen intellect to complex transactions. We will miss his intelligence, integrity and personal charm, and extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to his dear wife Evelyn and the children and grandchildren who have given him such pleasure and support.

Arthur G. Cohen, Chairman
Allan J. Marrus, President

KLIMPL—Emanuel. It is with Profound sorrow that the partners, associates and staff of Parker Chapin Flattau & Klimpl, LLP mourn the passing of their esteemed Senior Counsel, Emanuel Klimpl. For many years he was the devoted leader of our firm and contributed much to its development. he was a dear friend who will be sorely missed. To his wife and children we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

KLIMPL—Emanuel. The officers and members of Temple Sinai of Roslyn record with profound sorrow the passing of Emanuel Klimpl. Our condolences to the family.

Rabbi Aaron M. Petuchowski
Rabbi Norman Kahan, Emeritus
Dr. Steven Goodman, President